

TERMS AND CONDITIONS INTENSIVE COURSES

These terms and conditions are an important part of your driving tuition so please read carefully.

Tuition

Tuition is only available if you meet the following criteria

You must be aged 17 or over

You must hold a current and valid UK provisional driving licence

You must be legally entitled to drive in the UK . If any changes to your driving licence occur, due to medical conditions or driving convictions, you must let the instructor know immediately.

You must not be taking any prescribed drugs or medication that could affect your driving

You must wear appropriate clothing and footwear.

Payments

Intensive course fees must be paid for in advance before any training can commence. A 50% deposit is required 7 days prior to arranged start date of course. Balance to be paid on 1st day of arranged course. Method of payment can be bank transfer or cash

Cancellation

Once a deposit has been taken for course start date this fee is non refundable because the instructor has arranged this course and day to day pupils will not have been booked in. Also once a course time has been arranged all times and days must be adhered to, any cancellation of times will not be refunded.

Lessons

Your driving lesson will be on a one to one basis throughout the intensive course. The minimum lesson period is 2 hours and the maximum is 4 hours per day.

There is a set fee of £80.00 on driving test day therefore 2.5 hours will be required on test day to be taken off the original tuition to cover test day. which includes one hour pre-test and use of car on driving test

Training Location

All sessions will start and finish at the same location unless alternative arrangements are made in advance. The instructor will determine the location for practical lessons which ensures both you and the public safety.

Training Vehicles

Training vehicle is provided by the instructor and is road-worthy and fitted with dual controls for your safety and piece of mind. The instructor will make every effort to ensure that all lessons are given in the same vehicle, however will reserve the right to change training vehicle if required. Your driving instructor reserves the right to refuse use of training vehicle on driving test day, if in the instructors opinion the pupil has not reached the required standard for taking the DVLA driving test.
